Lecture: MWF 11:30 AM - 12:20 AM  A308 Wells Hall

Instructor: Huyi Hu, D307 Wells Hall, 3-8497
   Email: hu@math.msu.edu
   Web: http://www.math.msu.edu/~hhu

Office Hours: MWF 1:00pm - 2:00 pm and by appointment

Topics: The course will cover most materials of Chapter 1-6 of the textbook, including properties of real numbers, convergence of sequences and series, limits, continuity, sequences and series of functions, differentiation and integration.

Attendance: You are expected to attend every lecture.

Homework: There will be homework assignment for each section of the textbook. It is essential for your understanding that you work on them. Homework will be collected for grading, some for correctness, and others for completeness and neatness. The due date will be specified each time. You may collaborate with others on any of the homework problems, however, you should work alone on writing up the solutions.

Exams: There are three hour exams, and one final exam. Exams are closed book and closed notes. No calculator is allowed in exams.

Grades: The homework will be worth 100 points and each hour exam will be worth 100 points. Among the grades, you may drop one hour exam grade or the homework grade. The final exam will be worth 200 points. The grade for the course is based on a total of 500 points distributed as below.
